

New City-County Building Is Recommended

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

Construction of a new city-county building with an estimated cost of $3.5 million has been recommended by the City-County Building Committee.

Reporting its findings to a joint meeting of the City Council and County Commissioners, the Committee urged "unanimously construction of a new joint city-county building at the earliest opportunity in the belief that it will contribute immeasurably to the convenience of the people... and at the same time result in substantial economies in maintenance and operation."

Recommending 15th Street as the location, the committee called for establishment of a Building Authority as permitted under state law to finance and operate the building.

The joint facility, with 130,000 square feet of area, would be rented by the Authority to the city and county. The committee estimated that the county would require 58 per cent of the space and the city 42 per cent.

It was recommended that rentals be based on this 58-42 split to cover all costs of paying off the revenue bonds issued for construction, interest and operating and maintenance costs.

The committee report estimated ed the annual cost of debt retirement plus operation and maintenance at $272,402. This would mean a total cost to the county of $157,993 per year and $114,408 to the city.

It was pointed out in the report, however, that operation and maintenance of the two existing buildings costs $90,786.60. The annual increase in cost to the two sub-divisions for the new building was thus figured at $103,473 for the county and $74,928 for the city.

While conservative in their statements before studying the committee's report, both Mayor Clark Jeary and Chairman Russell Brehm of the County Board made optimistic statements on the possibilities of the long discussed building becoming a reality.

"It looks like we are on the first leg of a much needed building," Brehm said.

"There is certainly nothing here that discourages or prohibits us from going ahead with other study and planning," Jeary said.

Both Jeary and Brehm promised action by their respective governing bodies in following up on the committee's report. Both groups have taken the report under study.

The committee recommended that 14 city and 22 county departments, plus the combined health department, be located in the new building. The structure would include a new combined city-county jail and the municipal, county and District courts.

The report to the two governing bodies was read by Committee Chairman C. C. Kimball. Others on the committee are G. A. Frampton, W. F. Edmund, C. S. Guenzel Sr., Burnham Yates, John F. Lawlor, J. E. Lawrence, Elsie Pierson and G. H. Tekolste.

Russians: Accept Big 4 Offer Reds Say Summit No Site To Talk Communism

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union agreed Monday to a Big Four meeting at Geneva July 18, but sharply denied that either the status of East European Communist nations or the role of international communism was a matter for the summit conference.

Announcing the acceptance of the time and place, the Russians accused the United States of bringing up such questions in an effort to torpedo the conference. The aim of the meeting, they said, should be primarily to "lessen international tensions."

A Soviet note strongly indicated the Kremlin wants the conference of Premier Bulganin, Prime Minister Eden, Premier Faure and President Eisenhower to last more than the three or four days suggested by the West. It is assumed here that Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov will discuss this point when he meets in San Francisco next week with U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay.

Preconditions

The Foreign Ministry summoned correspondents to hear the reading of a press statement accusing Dulles of attempting to set preconditions for the conference so as to handicap its aims.

Although the formal note accepting the date and time of the conference was not so specific as the press statement, there seemed little doubt the U. S. S. R. would refuse to discuss either its position with regard to world communism, or the Communist regimes of Poland, Albania, Romania, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Bulgaria. The press statement said no problem concerning these states existed.

(Dulles in a television report to the nation last month said the summit conference might set up processes toward solution of such problems as German reunification, arms limitations, the problem of satellite Communist nations dominated by Moscow and problems "created by international communism, which is such a pest all around the world.")

When the Soviet Foreign Office press chief, Leonid Ilyichev, finished reading the Soviet note to correspondents, he announced he would read a dispatch of the official news agency Tass commenting on statements by Dulles.

'New Spirit'

This statement quoted Dulles as saying he intended to bring up the Eastern European and world Communist questions and as remarking that the summit conference's success would depend on whether the Soviet Union was ready to show a "new constructive spirit."

"It should be clear to all," the Tass statement said, "that no problem of the countries of Eastern Europe exists, since the people of these countries, having overthrown the rule of the exploiters and established people's democracies, will not allow anyone to interfere in their internal affairs."

"As for the activity of international communism, would it be permitted to ask Mr. Dulles how he would regard the introduction of the conference of the problem of international capitalism?"

Gratified

LONDON (AP)—Britain officially welcomed Russia's acceptance of the Western proposal for a Big Four chiefs-of-government meeting in Geneva July 18. A Foreign Office spokesman said the British government was "gratified" by the Soviet agreements.

—More Practical Plan OKd— Ike's A-Powered Exhibit Ship Idea Is Torpedoed Senate-House Committee Turns Down $21 Million Request

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee Monday torpedoed President Eisenhower's plan for an atomic-powered exhibit ship to sail around the world, but approved development of a nuclear ship's engine for what they considered more practical purposes.

A 21 million dollar request for the Eisenhower project was turned down.

At the same time the committee announced it had approved a separate administration request for 25 million dollars to build an atomic reactor or furnace for use in a surface ship. It said it would make clear that the reactor be adapted either to a military vessel or a freight-carrying merchant ship.

The committee also allotted five million dollars to carry out the program announced by the President Saturday for helping other nations to build atomic power reactors.

Rep. Holifield (D-Calif.) said this was more than the three million the Atomic Energy Commission had informally suggested might be needed at the outset.

"We thought it was a good program so we made it five million," he explained.

No Refueling

The atomic exhibit ship idea first was advanced by Eisenhower in a speech at the annual Associated Press luncheon in New York last April 25.

He said such a vessel could tour ports of the world without refueling, displaying exhibits that would give dramatic evidence of American progress in the field of peacetime atomic energy.

Holifield, who headed a subcommittee which worked on these and several other atomic energy construction projects asked by the administration, called the ship a "showboat."

Sen. Anderson (D-NM), chairman of the full committee, referred to it as a "museum ship."

These two committee members, voicing views similar to those expressed earlier by Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), said it would be better to use funds for a reactor which would be commercially feasible in a merchant ship and also adaptable to Navy vessels.

The 25 million dollar item which the committee approved should carry out this purpose, they said.

—Warning— Peron To Halt Rioters Catholics, Foes Clash Anew In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Juan Peron Monday night charged the Roman Catholic clergy with waging a systematic campaign of calumny against him and his late wife, and threatened to put down "with all energy" disorders growing out of his feud with the church.

Peron spoke in a 25-minute broadcast from his residence in Palermo after a weekend of riots between his followers and supporters of the Roman Catholic Church, the state church of Argentina.

Twenty-nine persons were hurt in the disorders and hundreds were arrested.

Fresh fighting broke out Monday night in the Plaza de Mayo in downtown Buenos Aires when a crowd of Peron adherents charged the Metropolitan Cathedral and the adjoining palace of Argentina's cardinal in an effort to plant an Argentine flag atop the palace.

Peron

Attack Repulsed

The attack was repulsed by church supporters guarding the building.

No one was hurt, apparently, in Monday night's fighting.

Speaking in an unusually conciliatory tone, Peron urged the people to be calm, and declared his police and government were strong enough to put down disorders.

He said he had tried patiently for 12 years to live in peace with the church.

But he said he had now lost hope that the church hierarchy would ever be willing to recognize his good intentions, and he placed full blame on the Catholic clergy for the disorders over the weekend.

Clergy Blamed

He said high Argentine clergy "with armed people" were trying to provoke disorder and "public spectacles."

But he warned that, "For every man they are able to muster, we are able to raise 10 and 10 times 10 more."

Earlier Monday, federal police raided the palace of Santiago Luis Cardinal Copello, searching his rooms and arresting 430 persons inside. Thirty-seven other persons were reported by police to have been arrested Sunday night and Monday.

The pro-Peron General Confederation of Labor Monday night called a general strike for Tuesday so that workers could rally to a mass meeting in support of the government in the fight against the church.

Peron's followers were aroused by charges, denied by church leaders, that Catholic crowds had burned an Argentine flag.

—Boys State Elections— Omaha, Valentine Boys Win Governor Primary

By ELLIS RALL
Star Staff Writer

Bruce Barth of Omaha and Jerry Spain of Valentine will vie for the office of Governor at Boys State general elections. Both won their mythical primary election battles Monday. Barth ran on the Nationalist ticket and Spain won the Federalist nomination.

In other primary results, Federalist Wes Berry Jr. of Sidney and Nationalist John Ball of Omaha won in the race for Lt. Governor.

Running for Secretary of State will be Nationalist Bob Busted of Elgin and Federalist Bob Widgren of Hastings.

State Treasurer candidates are Richard Vanek of Amelia, Federalist, and Edward Gzhoviak of Grand Island, Nationalist. State Auditor candidates will be Gary Rogers of Beaver City, Federalist and Bill Sandman of Harbine, Nationalist.

Nominated for the Attorney General race were Bob Elliott of Mitchell, Federalist and Kenneth Lundgren of Omaha, Nationalist. For Railway Commissioner Candidates were: Gary L. Rodgers of Osmond, Ronnie Gleason of Hardy, Walt Nevel of Omaha, all Nationalists and Larry Hofeldt of Wayne, Robert Barry of Lincoln and Dick O'Grady of Lincoln, Federalists.

On the non-political ticket running for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in the General election will be Donald Nelson of Lincoln and John Thomas of Kearney. For member-at-large of the State School Board, candidates named were Raymond Hoover of Lincoln and David Candish of Grand Island.

The primary elections, held between 3 and 4 p.m. Monday, on the Agriculture campus, followed a noisy, hotly-contested campaign in which the Boys Staters staged a brief, but loud hour-long political rally.

Supplementing lung power, they took advantage of hundreds of homemade political posters which they plastered to walls, signs, and even tagged them on their shirts and hats.

Some small groups organized loud pep bands, others relied on paint buckets, some pounded cardboard boxes with clothes hangers—all producing plenty of noise.

General elections are scheduled for Tuesday afternoon after the parties hold their conventions and caucuses.

Inauguration of officers will be Tuesday evening followed by an address by Governor Victor Anderson. The Lincoln American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps will give a concert, immediately after election results are posted at 7 p.m.

Slow Warmup To Continue

A gradual warmup over the state was expected to continue Tuesday with temperatures in the 70s predicted for high.

But partly cloudy skies were forecast to hover over Nebraska through Wednesday, bringing scattered thundershowers in the southwest, south and central portions Tuesday and in the south and west Tuesday night and Wednesday.

Omaha, reporting a 74-degree reading, was the state's warmest point Monday and downtown Lincoln had a 73. Other points reaching 70 or over were Grand Island and Norfolk with 72. The Monday low reading was Grand Island's and Sidney's 48.

Over 2 Inches Rain Falls In 20 Minutes

Water Pours Through Streets
Causing $1 Million Damage;
Hotel Bar Is Submerged

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (INS)—A terrific cloudburst lashed Las Vegas Monday night and caused damage estimated at about a million dollars. However, no one was hurt.

Hail and rain poured on the town at the rate of about 2 1/2 inches in 20 minutes and caused water to run through the streets in low-lying sections from 18 inches to 2 1/2 feet deep.

In the downtown area, portions of the roof and bar of the big Shamrock Hotel collapsed and the bar was submerged.

Hundreds of lawns were washed out or damaged in the gambling resort and two tract developments under construction on the east side of the town suffered especially heavy damage.

Two storms apparently contributed to the inundation. One burst of rain drenched the Charleston range of mountains west of Las Vegas and about two hours later rain cascaded on the city proper.

Worst Since '29

Several dry washes coming out of the mountains and across the desert carried the overflow from the hills into the city.

One observer called it the worst storm he had seen in the city since 1929.

The entire eastern section of Las Vegas was flooded with shallow water. Almost 50 blocks were under water up to 2 1/2 feet deep.

Three underpasses east and west of the city were filled with water up to 12 feet deep. Traffic was blocked for several hours, but eventually restored.

Ambulance service was bogged down for several hours because the only two approach roads to Nevada Memorial Hospital were submerged.

It was believed that the famed Las Vegas gambling strip suffered little or no damage. Reports from the long line of plush gambling hotels indicated gaming continued without interruption.

21st, Vine Wreck Injures Two Men

Two Lincoln men who suffered injuries in a two-car collision at 21st and Vine Monday night were reported in satisfactory and good condition early Tuesday morning.

They were Robert Bitencke, 21, of 2253 W. who suffered multiple lacerations of the head and scalp and Reynolds Rekte, 21, of 3401 Washington, who suffered multiple lacerations about the face, chin, neck and finger.

Bitencke was taken to Lincoln General Hospital where he was held overnight. Rekte was taken to Bryan Memorial Hospital for treatment and was held.

Police said Bitencke's car collided with one driven by Mary Bratt, 31, of 1319 Claremont, a housewife.

1st St. Accident Victims Are Fair

Teen-agers Joan Debus and Marilyn Merritt, both of Lincoln and Barbara Sherman of Crete were reported in fair condition early Tuesday morning at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

The three were thrown from a rolling car that had careened out of control into a three foot ditch Sunday night.

The Safety Patrol said the driver had attempted to stop at a county road junction six miles north of Lincoln on 1st Street.

The girls suffered cerebral concussions and Miss Debus also suffered a fractured collarbone.

Bike Fall Injures 10-Year-Old Rider

Terry McGinley, 10, of 1416 F. suffered undetermined injuries when he fell from his bike on a downtown street Monday night.

He was taken to Lincoln General for treatment and was held overnight for observation.

—Held Open— Draft Bill Is Bogged

Senate Unit Votes
A Tentative OK
On Extension

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Senate Armed Services Committee held up formal approval of draft legislation Monday because of a renewed administration request to include President Eisenhower's military reserve bill.

Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), said the committee tentatively approved a bill to continue the regular draft act for four years and the special doctor-dentist draft law for two years.

But Russell said the "action was tentative because of a request that the committee include the reserve bill in this legislation."

Russell said the question was held open "to see if officials of the Defense Department want to make a formal appearance" on including the reserve bill.

Strong Appeals

Mr. Eisenhower and Defense Department officials have made strong appeals for quick Senate action on the legislation to build up the nation's reserves. The bill has been shelved in the House because of an anti-segregation amendment.

The amendment was voted by a coalition of Southerners who oppose ending racial segregation in the reserves and some mid-west lawmakers who felt that the reserve program is a modified form of universal military training which they oppose.

Russell said that some members of his committee who favor the reserve bill do not want to attach it to the draft legislation for fear it will be so controversial it will endanger the bill. He pointed out the draft act is due to expire at midnight June 30 and there is but limited time for Congress to act.

The chairman himself said he has not altered his opposition to combining the legislation.

18 Through 25

A decision on whether Defense Department officials want to make an additional personal plea for the committee to tie the reserve program to the draft bill is expected soon, probably Tuesday.

The committee in its tentative action approved without substantial change the House-passed bill to draft men 18 and a half through 25 for two years military service.

However, it approved a compromise amendment under which boys who enlist in the National Guard before they are drafted and remain there, end their liability to be inducted when the become 30. The House voted to end their draft vulnerability at 26. Under the present law, they are liable to induction until they reach 35.

The committee adopted an amendment asked by the State Department under which nationals of friendly countries who have served 18 months in their own armed forces, would be exempt from the U.S. draft. This is the so-called reciprocity amendment which is expected to free Americans living abroad from possible induction into foreign troops.

Union Turns To 'Little Three' Auto Makers

Guarantee Approved By GM

... 3-Year Agreement

DETROIT (AP)—CIO Auto Workers Monday obtained from General Motors the same guaranteed wage plan they got a week ago from Ford. Tuesday the union turns to first 1955 bargaining with a member of the auto industry's "Little Three"—American Motors Corp.

Walter P. Reuther, president of both the CIO and UAW, said a similar guaranteed wage plan would be the union's No. 1 demand on Chrysler, last of the "Big Three" unsigned. But he declined to say about American Motors, Studebaker-Packard, and Kaiser.

However, Leonard Woodcock, UAW vice president in charge of its American Motors department, told newsmen "yes, we are" going to ask the same of American Motors, makers of Nash and Hudson.

Hopes To Extend It

With his new three-year GM agreement, Reuther again established the principle of employer-paid benefits to supplement unemployment compensation of laid-off workers. From this important auto beachhead he hopes to spread it to other industries.

The UAW has 375,000 workers in GM plants, where it won an unconditional union shop along with monetary benefits that it estimated were worth 20 cents hourly to each worker-member.

The present hourly pay scale in the auto industry averages roughly $2.10, with that of skilled workers running up from a base of $2.50. The UAW figures its members averaged $2.21 hourly before the new agreement.

Dissatisfaction was expressed at many GM plants, with wildcat strikes erupting as they did in Ford factories a week earlier. In both cases, however, most walk-outs were blamed on local issues, and international headquarters began applying pressure to local leaders to get men back to work. Similar pressure ended Ford wildcats within three days.

At one time Monday, GM estimated approximately 140,000 employees were idle at 50 of its 119 plants across the country because of work stoppages and resultant parts shortages.

GM's pact closely parallels that between the UAW and Ford. Reuther estimated it would cost the corporation 600 million dollars over its three-year life.

Other Gains

Besides the guaranteed wage plan, it carries improvements in pay, pensions, vacations and holidays. The union shop agreement means that GM's fewer than 5 per cent non-union production workers must join the UAW in 60 days to hold their jobs.

GM, like Ford, agreed to guarantee laid-off workers 60 to 65 per cent of regular take-home pay, including unemployment compensation, for a period of 26 weeks—half a year. The union originally had demanded a year's guarantee of 80 per cent of full pay.

Neither the GM nor Ford guarantee becomes effective until June 1, 1956.

Group Formed To Brief Grand Jury Members

A new organization, the Nebraska Grand Jury Association, was formed recently in Omaha following the end of the current Grand Jury session there. Mrs. Frank Morrison of 3601 So 17th, was named president of the association.

Twenty-three charter members, all who served on the current Grand Jury in Omaha, make up the nucleus of the organization. Its function is to instruct new Grand Jury members on the functions and operations of a Grand Jury.

Other officers are: George Thacker of Omaha, vice-president and Mrs. Boyd Meyers of York, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Morrison, the only woman in Nebraska history to serve as foreman of a Grand Jury, said a committee would be appointed this summer to draw up by-laws and a constitution.

She said an educational pamphlet or booklet will be organized with the help of the District Attorney at Omaha. The booklet will be distributed to new members of the Grand Jury.

The group plans to meet annually in June. Anyone, she said, who has served on a Grand Jury would be eligible to join the group.

Ridgway Named Board Chairman Of Mellon Institute

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, 60, retiring Army Chief of Staff, Monday was named chairman of the board of trustees of Mellon Institute of Industrial Research.

Ridgway's appointment was announced by Richard K. Mellon, a member of the board and a son of Richard B. Mellon, a founder of the institute.

Mellon said Ridgway would assume his duties about the middle of September. Ridgway will retire from the Army June 30.

The institute, founded in 1913 by A. W. and R. B. Mellon, does industrial and scientific research in chemistry, physics, biology, engineering and allied fields. It spends approximately five million dollars a year in research. Its work is nonprofit.

No Defense

VATICAN CITY (AP)—L'Osservatore Romano declared Roman Catholics in Argentina "are in the position of accused persons who have no possibility of defending themselves even from the most odious calumnies."

The Vatican newspaper said President Juan D. Peron's government has "an almost total monopoly" of information and is the only agency in a position to appeal to Argentine public opinion.

Run-Aways Caught

Two teen-age run-aways from Boys Town were picked up with a stolen car from Papillon by Lincoln police. The boys were 13 and 14 years of age.

Boy Staters Seem To Like Girls

It's not a riot! A couple of teenage girls (center) were spotted at Boys State and the word passed around fast. Seeing the commotion the photographer snapped the shot. He couldn't break through the outer perimeter of boys to get identification, but he did find out the girls were part of an entertainment troop Monday evening that staged a show for the 300 boys.

Or at least, they were there with their parents, watching the entertainment. You can't blame the fellows, though, they haven't seen a girl their own age in—well, two days at least. (Star Staff Photo.)

Hotel Busboy Is Nabbed In Terror Case

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—A Beverly Hills hotel busboy was arrested for questioning Monday about six hours of terror in which a girl vocalist was stripped and photographed nude and her husband and mother beaten.

"The Champagne Lady," as pretty, 27-year-old Alice Lon is billed, was met at her door early Sunday by three men wearing surgical rubber gloves and stocking masks. They ripped off her evening dress and undergarments, swathed her face in adhesive tape and took seven flash photos of her as she lay nude on the living room couch.

The hoodlums repeatedly kicked and punched her husband, Robert W. Waterman, 31, former paratrooper and Southern Methodist University football player, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Wyche. Both had been bound with torn sheets and gagged with adhesive tape after Waterman told the men there was no money in the house.

Monday Joseph M. Cannon, 25, was arrested at his North Hollywood home and booked at the Van Nuys jail on suspicion of robbery.

Thad Brown, chief of Los Angeles police detectives, said: "He's one of her fan club members and has taken a lot of pictures of her at the ballroom where she appears. He's a very persistent sort of guy about taking pictures."

Man Police Shot Pleads Not Guilty

Burglary charges rising out of the break-in at the Moose Lodge last Tuesday resulted in a not guilty plea by Thomas Tippery, 34, of 2300 So. 37th in County Court Monday.

Tippery, who was shot by police while running away from the burglary scene, was placed under $3,000 court appearance bond. Preliminary hearing is set for June 25. He made the bond.

Charges of burglary are on file against Charles W. Jackson, 27, of Lincoln, the second man charged with breaking into the club during the early morning hours.

Jackson escaped the scene and has not been apprehended yet.

Tippery, shot on the left side, was transferred to the Penitentiary last Friday by the county sheriff's office.

A .25 calibre automatic was found in Tippery's possession when his clothes were examined at the hospital after he was shot. A roll of nickels also was found in his possession, which, police said, was taken from the Lodge during the break-in.

Both Tippery and Jackson have served time at the Penitentiary on burglary charges.

City-County Plant Backed By Reasons

'Obsolete City Hall, Courthouse And Jail Are Blasted In Report

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

A host of reasons, including the condition of existing buildings and a more efficient and economical operation, were given by the City-County Building Committee in approving construction of a new joint facility for the two sub-divisions.

Commenting on the controversial county jail, the report stated, "the present county jail is completely obsolete, unsanitary and sub-standard in every respect."

Note was also made of the desirability of court and jail facilities in the same building.

Cited as another example of the opportunity for consolidation with a joint building was the treasury department of the two sub-divisions. Particular note was made of the public inconvenience of having to pay taxes, city and county, at two locations.

Use by the two governmental law departments of joint library facilities in the new building was also recommended.

Old Buildings Noted

As further evidence of need for the new building, the committee report cited the "extreme state of obsolescence and deterioration" of the City Hall, which was built in 1878 and the Courthouse, built in 1888.

"By all standards of depreciation and obsolescence," the report said, "these buildings have served their purpose and should now be demolished. . . . The committee is impressed with the fact that the present buildings . . . involve a maximum hazard for all valuable records, files, recordings and records to property titles which, in most cases, would prove extremely difficult or impossible to replace in case of destruction by fire or by the elements."

Both buildings were also described as "a health hazard" to employees. Conditions of improper light, heat and ventilation were referred to in the report.

"Additional funds spent upon them (existing buildings) for improvements, alterations and revisions," the report said, "would be wasteful. . . ."

In backing 15th Street as the site, the committee report referred both to the city's comprehensive city plan which makes the same recommendation, Lincoln's responsibility to the state and to other uses for the present buildings' sites.

"Location of a joint county-city building on 15th Street," the report said, "would be a big step toward development of a civic center and in fulfillment of Lincoln's pledge to the state."

"The committee believes further that the location . . . on 15th will best serve the majority of the people. . . ."

The report noted that the present City Hall site reverts back to the federal government when the area ceases to be used for municipal purposes. The Courthouse site, the report said, would make an excellent and much needed parking area.

The committee recommended that the city and county legal departments begin at once a study of state laws to make sure no amendments are needed to permit the establishment and operation of a building authority.

The report paid high tribute to the work done for the committee by the former chairman, the late Dr. John P. Senning. Senning spent more than a year in research and study while on the committee.

The committee report was based on surveys of all city and county departmental needs, experiences in other cities and other information. The building recommended would be expected to meet all city and county needs for the next 20 years.

'Still The Same'

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Screen star Debbie Reynolds disclosed that she and Eddie Fisher sat down and talked things over quietly but the status of their much publicized romance is "still the same."

Debbie said the meeting took place over the weekend at her uncle's home in Palm Springs, a desert resort 70 miles from Hollywood.

"What statement is there to make? The situation still is the same. We are still engaged. I still love Eddie, and we still have no date set for the wedding."

Bequest Upheld

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Bequests totaling $516,000 to Amherst College and the town of West Brookfield, Mass., by the daughter of a man who loved them were upheld in Los Angeles Superior Court.

Judge J. Howard Ziemann upheld the bequests by the late Helen Elizabeth Gilbert after four cousins contested the will on the ground that Mrs. Gilbert was of unsound mind when she signed it shortly before her death last Sept. 29 at the age of 47.

Property Management Waste Hit By Hoover Commission

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Hoover Commission Monday called on President Eisenhower to enforce reforms in "wasteful" property management practices of the government which, it said, load costs on the taxpayer and divert revenue from the states and cities.

The commission headed by former President Herbert Hoover filed the 13th report in its reorganization series with Congress, but aimed many of its recommendations at the White House.

Orders issued by the General Services Administration to correct mismanagement and needless purchases of land and buildings, the commission said, frequently are ignored by the 27 property-holding agencies "and no effort is made to enforce compliance."

The report asked the President and Congress to centralize in GSA, the government's housekeeping agency, authority for supervising enormous federal realty holdings. If agencies still disobey GSA rulings, it said, GSA should request the President "to direct them to comply."

Under inadequate regulation, the commission reported, the government has acquired about one-fourth the total acreage of the nation. It added the government now owns office buildings and other structures equivalent in space to 1,250 Empire State buildings, and industrial plants with an original cost as great as the nation's entire iron and steel industry.

But there exists no complete, up-to-date inventory of these vast holdings, the report went on. It said the result is that one agency often buys new space while another holds idle space. Noting that each federal acquisition removes the ground or buildings from local tax rolls, the 12-member commission went on:

"The cost to the taxpayer is increased not only by wasteful acquisition and unrealized disposal of surplus property, but as the federal government is exempt from taxation, the whole status of local and state taxation is injured. . . ."

New Union Drive Planned By CIO-AFL

NEW YORK (AP)—CIO President Walter Reuther said Monday that as soon as the merger of the CIO and AFL is completed, the new labor group will undertake a mass organization campaign among white collar workers.

Reuther, in a statement read at the annual convention of the AFL Office Employees International Union, said white collar workers are "the forgotten men and women of modern industry."

"There will be a hard battle ahead. We must immediately begin the important task of organizing workers into unions which best serve their interests."

New Beginning

He added, "We intend that this unity we have so long sought will be a new beginning for organized labor in America."

Reuther's statement was read to the convention by J. Howard Hicks, secretary-treasurer of the office workers union.

Howard Coughlin, president of the union, estimated there are some 14 million unorganized office workers in the nation. About four million of these are employed by government agencies, he said.

Benedict C. Kalin Rite Held Monday

Funeral services for Pharmacist Benedict C. Kalin, 62, of 421 So. 25th, who died Friday, were held Monday in St. Mary's Cathedral. His son, Rev. B. E. Kalin, officiated.

Mr. Kalin had lived in Lincoln for 38 years and was a member of St. Mary's Cathedral Parish. He had recently been awarded the Papal honor cross, Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice.

Burial was in Calvary.

High time you discovered the difference in Dodge!

New Dodge Custom Royal Lancer 4-Door Sedan—most beautiful car on the road today.

Next time you're driving around town, just notice the number of gleaming new Dodge cars you see on the street!

Then ask yourself: "What is it these people have found out about the new Dodge that's causing this landslide of popular favor?"

Part of it, of course, is the new Dodge styling. You can see at a glance how much bigger and more luxurious this car is—up to 9 inches longer than its competitors.

But the real story behind the rush to Dodge is this: People are discovering the difference in the way Dodge cars are engineered and built!

They discover it in the solid, substantial feel of the car—the way it handles and rides. They learn to appreciate it in the deep-down goodness of every part and feature: Doors that don't rattle. Body joints that don't squeak. Windows that work smoothly.

There is really no substitute for the dependability that is built into Dodge. Isn't it time you discovered this difference for yourself?

STAN DELAPLANE'S POSTCARD

Before we get too far along in the week, allow me to remind you that next Sunday is Father's Day, Daddy-O.

The official theme of Father's Day is: "Home Is Where Democracy Begins."

The official flower: The red, red, rose.

The official menu: Chicken, cranberry sauce, ice cream and cake — and all "the trimmings."

The official color is blue. I consider this quite significant. I am blue a good deal, particularly on my own red letter day which happens to be the first of the month.

I do not attribute this to being a father. At the same time, I will not say fatherhood is a bed of roses. Red or white. It is more like cranberry sauce. Sticky, know what I mean?

Well, the only reason I bring it up is by request of the National Fathers Day Committee.

Father's Day was started by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd in Spokane Wash., in 1910. This was long before I was a father or even thought of it. Therefore I do not consider myself bound by it. However, I will speak of fathers.

A father should be agile. He is often called upon to get tennis balls off the roof. Where they have lodged in the rain gutter.

Fathers are required to eat their 11-year-old daughter's first cake. They should enthuse over the flavor and texture and try to get the end piece with the most icing. Otherwise their daughters are hurt.

and may never speak to them again.

Fathers must examine skinned knees for signs of leprosy and other horrid ailments. They must not laugh. Also they should not complain when after the examination the daughter drinks all the ice water they have hauled out to the hammock under the shade tree.

This is my idea of a father's rightful role. I mention it because the official theme is "Home Is Where Democracy Begins." It is kind of a local Point Four program.

Fathers of the year are elected annually. The first was General Douglas MacArthur in 1942.

I have never been elected "Father of the Year." I have been elected "The Father We Would Most Like to Buy Us a New Bathing Suit Because the Old One Is Not the Kind They Are Wearing This Year."

As the people's choice, I have accepted the nomination.

In spite of the well wishes of the pipe-and-tie industry, Father's Day has never become as important as Mother's Day.

Almost any father who does not devour his young and is willing to do sixth-grade homework can be an acceptable father.

There is a tremendous uproar, though, when Mother's Day rolls around.

As a matter of fact, I sometimes think fathers are a vanishing industry. But sometimes they are handy for catching lizards.

And if there were no fathers, there would be no Mother's Day. Put that in your pipe and smoke it, Daddy-O.

The Elgin National Watch Co. has announced the naming of Russell E. Conyne of 3400 L as personnel manager of the Elgin, Ill., division of the firm with additional company-wide employee relations and administrative duties.

Howard R. Folkman, formerly personnel manager at Elgin, was named to succeed Conyne.

The move was described as promotions for both men. Each will have increased responsibilities, the company said.

Conyne joined the company as an inspector in 1927 after graduating from Elgin High School. He was in the Navy from 1929-34 but returned to Elgin to become, successively, a job attendant, foreman and employment manager. His company career was again interrupted by Navy service from 1943-46 when he returned to become Lincoln personnel manager.

He held memberships in the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, Lincoln Personnel Association, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion and Elks. He is current legislative committee chairman of Associated Industries of Nebraska, was a director of the Lincoln Better Business Bureau and was active in local welfare fund drives.

Conyne is married to the former Vivian Bailey of Harvard, Ill.

Folkman joined Elgin in 1941 to be, successively, an employee interviewer, employment manager and, since January, 1954, personnel manager. He was a 1931 graduate of Elgin High School and attended Detroit Art Academy.

Conyne Folkman

Sherwood Music School of Chicago, University of Chicago, Wayne University of Illinois and Wayne University. He was a designer and at one time a professional musician before his Elgin career began.

He has been a trustee of the Elgin School Board, and a member of the Elgin Association of Commerce industrial relations committee, the Eagles and Elks Clubs.

Folkman is married to the former Vivian Wolff. They are the parents of a son, Howard Jr., 14, and a daughter, Melanie, 10.

During World War II Conyne was a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy. He commanded a landing ship for two years in the South Pacific.

Taking A Chance

Back to Nebraska came a distinguished educator, Dr. Edward C. Elliott, president emeritus of Purdue University, to address the graduating class of the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Elliott, 80 years young, offered a formula for individual success, which he said depends "on determination, industry, insight and a readiness to accept chances."

We are not sure whether he himself was inclined to place any emphasis upon any one of the four qualities which, in his judgment, contributed most to the leadership of the nation. Surely determination, industry, and insight are an inseparable part of the happiness of achievement. Without the three we are doubtful that any human being gets the most out of life, or to put it better, contributes the most to his community, state or nation.

But we were intrigued with Mr. Elliott's reference to the readiness to accept chances. Its presence or its absence in the lives of men has made a great deal of difference. We are by nature a cautious, conservative people, many of us hesitate to tear up our roots from familiar surroundings and to venture boldly into the unknown. We know on innumerable occasions, taking chances paid, and paid handsomely in all fields of a complicated, modern society. Nor do we believe that at this time there is any less desire to seek the unknown or to accept the hazard which the bold spirit faces than existed in other periods of American history. America grew strong and powerful because of that readiness to accept chances. We call it by many names—perhaps the best is a quenchless spirit of initiative—but if we were to examine that which is around us, we would find that much of which we now enjoy is there for our enjoyment because some lone soul or a small number of people possessed the imagination and the boldness so necessary to a nation.

Wednesday's Alert

Safety of life and property will not actually be at stake. Wednesday's nation-wide civil defense exercises are for practice only. In most communities the general citizenry will have no assigned tasks, although civil defense officials and their aides will have work to do.

But that is no reason why most of us should treat the exercises lightly, giving little or no thought to them. It is a good time for each one to reserve a few moments to reflect upon the fate of himself and his community if the exercise were the real thing. There is a lot to think about.

In this five-state region, Lincoln will be an important center for Nebraska. It will receive

Our Turn To Laugh

Nebraska has taken its weather blows this year and is still hurting from a spring drought. But there is no gainsaying the fact that it has been basking in that kind of cool weather that is ordinarily offered as a lure to sweltering Nebraskans by the advertised resort regions.

By contrast Southern California is admitting super-100 degree weather. We have no idea

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

Up in Omaha Mayor Rosenblatt ordered Omaha's police to tighten up on juvenile delinquency. It is a move in the right direction. Those who should be most grateful for it are those directly affected since in individual cases it may spell the difference between a useful, happy life and the tragedy of a mispent existence. To use the mayor's language, the decision to quit playing tag with juvenile delinquency, and especially the instructions to the police to investigate teenagers in cars late at night and street corner gangs involve only down-to-earth common sense.

Not that any considerable element of the teen-agers are to be classed as juvenile delinquents. Actually the number falling within that group is few, remarkably few. The overwhelming number of teen-agers in the United States who have their heads squarely on their shoulders, their eyes fixed upward, and their activities well in hand in preparing themselves to assume their responsibilities ought to impress all of us day after day as the news unfolds. Here is a generation in a changed and changing world that has determined to make something of itself. More than 300 youngsters from all parts of the state reached Lincoln at the start of the week to participate in Boys' State. Boys' State gives to each youngster the most valuable training. He learns about his government. He is initiated into the duties and responsibilities of the executive, the legislative and the judicial branches so vital to the functioning of democracy. It is more than that. These youngsters attending Boys' State (the school for girls comes later) could not spend a week in the atmosphere in which they are cast without absorbing something of that intangible essence which contributes to the individual full appreciation of the dignity of man.

If nothing more than the fact that America is growing old, becoming more mature, and with age the invaluable tasks of settlement have been completed, it is important that the youngster be brought as close as humanly possible to the institutions of government. Rarely is thought devoted to the fact that the first responsibility of settlement in new country is the establishment of the institutions of free government. They were not there in the wilderness until men came to set them up. They did not take root and flourish until men on their own initiative saw to it that they were strengthened and revered.

Only on the rarest occasions have we as a people given even casual thought to what can be called the "territorial experience." It covers the years when this country was in the building. Hundreds of thousands of men and women were streaming west into virgin forest and prairie to construct homes on the land, to establish marketing centers, and to set up government acceptable to them. That territorial experience developed a wisdom. All of it did not prove successful. There was failure along with success, failure in goals and ambitions, the undeniable proof that even an unselfish nobility in objectives did not insure the practical working of an experiment in government. The territorial training has been completed. With the single exception of Alaska and Hawaii, there is no more territory to be claimed. We are the mature nation to which the world looks, and it has come about so swiftly in such a short period of time that we ourselves scarcely realize it.

We have the problem of juvenile delinquency and it must be dealt with intelligently and effectively. At the same time we have the great satisfaction of observing organizations designed to improve and to better the lives of youth performing a job no less important.

Subsidy For Senator Is Eyebrow Raiser

WASHINGTON — Another personal Senate expense fund similar to that of Vice President Nixon which threw the 1952 presidential campaign into turmoil has just been unearthed by this column.

The fund has been raised by and for Sen. Prescott Bush of Connecticut, Republican, and according to Bush's admission is around $25,000. Other Republicans in Connecticut placed it at nearer $40,000. The Nixon fund was a little over $18,000.

Like the Nixon fund, the Bush fund has been a strict secret, and like the Nixon fund it too was raised by wealthy Republicans, most of them around New York and Connecticut. Neither fund was registered with the clerk of the Senate.

The Bush Fund has been raised by a group of five Republicans of which two are Roland Harriman and John B. Gates. Bush, when questioned, admitted these two but declined to name the other three.

Roland Harriman is a partner in the Wall Street banking firm of Brown Brothers Harriman of which Sen. Bush was also a partner. He is a brother of Gov. Averell Harriman of New York. Unlike his brother, a Democrat, Roland Harriman has been a staunch Republican. He is also the preponderant stockholder in Newsweek magazine and recently helped arrange a shift in its Washington staff so that magazine would follow a more vigorous pro-Republican line.

John B. Gates is a nut-and-bolt manufacturer, an executive of Russell, Birdsall & Ward at Port-chester, N.Y., though his residence is in near-by Greenwich, Conn., where he is a member of the board of tax estimates.

SENATORS JUST INCREASED PAY

Sen. Bush is generally considered one of the wealthier members of the Senate. In addition to being a partner in the Wall Street firm of Brown Brothers Harriman, he was, up until election to the Senate, a director of the Columbia Broadcasting System, the U.S. Guarantee Co., Prudential Insurance, Vanadium Corp. of America, Dresser Industries, the Simmons Company, Rockbestos, Products Corp., and chairman of the Pennsylvania Water and Power Company.

Bush's friends started out with a plan to raise $20,000. However, they exceeded their goal by a considerable amount. The Republican state committee in Connecticut, incidentally, has not OK'd the Bush fund and one leading Republican stated that they were quite unhappy about it. They felt it was extremely poor strategy in view of the fact that Congress just voted to increase its own salary by 50 per cent.

Sen. Bush has always impressed me as being personally honest. He was frank in answering questions when queried about his secret fund.

Bush claimed that his special fund is not a campaign fund and gave that fact as his excuse for not reporting it.

In Which One Gypsy Discovers Blackmail

Gypsy has joined the rackets.

You would not expect it of her, since Gypsy is a small brown dachshund and dachshunds are not as a general rule given to blackmail. After a consideration of all facts, however, there is no other possible conclusion than that Gypsy has embarked on a determined campaign of extortion.

What it amounts to is that she is holding all the shoes in our house for ransom. Her price seems to be the return of the living room furniture to its old arrangement.

Gypsy's criminal tendencies first came into view shortly after Mrs. F. rearranged the furniture. This is a practice which Mrs. F., in common with most housewives, indulges in regularly. In the past, however, she had somehow never felt the call to move the big wing chair away from the front window. This time she did. The chair is the only one in the living room which the dogs, Gypsy and Jeep, are allowed to use.

Gypsy's resentment became apparent immediately. She liked the spot by the front window. She evidently considered it a piece of personal property. It gave her a chance to see what the other dogs in the neighborhood were doing, and to keep an eye on the postman. She made it abundantly clear that she wanted the chair moved back where it had been.

When after two days she had failed to put across her point with sulking, hang-dog looks, peevishness and just plain begging, she resorted to violence. She attacked the shoes.

Her first target was one of our daughter's white and brown oxfords — very good leather, too which had been gnawed down to sole leather when we found it, deposited in the exact spot where the chair had been. We did not immediately sense the connection between show and place, however, not even when Gypsy glared defiantly during her punishment at the wing chair, in its new position. It was not until three shoes later that we caught on.

Every shoe was left in the same place, once a maximum of destruction had been wrought upon it.

We tried carefully closing all closet doors. Inevitably someone grows careless, however, and Gypsy seemed to know by instinct when a closet, anywhere, which contained a shoe, was open. The toll continued, although not so rapidly. Neither punishment nor reason had any effect.

Finally, amid the ruins of my own best left black oxford, I announced to Mrs. F. that we had to do one of two things — get rid of Gypsy or get rid of shoes. Mrs. F. wrinkled her brow and said, "Or we could move the chair back."

"What! And give in to the most vicious kind of blackmail by a dog which isn't even a foot high? Well —"

So that's what we're going to do. Move the chair back.

Would Show H-Bomb Blast To Conferees

WASHINGTON — The generally negative attitude taken by Secretary of State Dulles toward the "meeting at the summit" of the Big Four July 18 at Geneva is causing concern here. Congress, other officials and assorted experts are voicing the apprehension that the United States is again losing the propaganda battle to the Russians and that at Geneva it will be worse.

The most striking idea for reversing this trend comes from Thomas E. Murray, a member of the Atomic Energy Commission. Mr. Murray has repeatedly voiced his moral anxiety for the age of nuclear fission.

He wants world leaders including the Big Four statesmen — American, Russian, British and French — to witness an explosion of the hydrogen bomb. So far as he knows, none of them ever has.

Such demonstrations of the full effects of large-scale thermonuclear explosions can be arranged without disclosing weapons technology, Mr. Murray told a recent audience. He put the question: "How can the world take any chance that each one in authority is not thoroughly familiar with what all-out atomic war would really mean? What a tragedy it would be if after a nuclear holocaust it was disclosed that those who struck the atomic spark had no real understanding of the extent to which nuclear fire would spread!"

A well-informed leadership on a world-wide basis seems to this atomic commissioner "absolutely essential to survival."

It is perhaps unfortunate for him that Sir Winston Churchill is no longer prime minister of Great Britain, for like so many good ideas, Churchill had it first. It was during one of his visits here to President Truman.

The prime minister had been taken to the secret briefing room at the Pentagon by the then Secretary of Defense Lovett and shown the actual destruction achieved by nuclear weapons. He marvelled suitably, then abruptly asked Lovett:

"Have you shown this to the Russian ambassador?" Somewhat taken aback Lovett said no, they hadn't. "You ought to do it, he is the man who ought to see it," rumbled Churchill. Lovett tactfully admitted it was quite a suggestion, but apparently never took it seriously.

Mr. Murray may meet with the same fate. Nevertheless there is a very real feeling here that ideas are badly needed for the Geneva meeting and that the administration could use them.

Attention is being paid to a suggestion by Perry Laukhoff, a U.S. diplomat who has met the Russians in numerous conferences, that we need negotiators specially trained in Communist methods. Laukhoff points out that the Russian negotiators are career professionals, while the United States removes its people just about the time they learn how to handle the Russians.

He names many: George Kennan, Lucius Clay, Dean Acheson, Averell Harriman, John McCloy, Philip Jessup. There is also Mrs. Roosevelt who, besides long experience with the Russians, has unique stature West and East.

pull weeds, dust squash, cucumber vines, cabbage and potato plants to prevent aphids and other bugs and insects from attack and damage. Until the mercury soars to 90 degrees, one can safely use sulphur (in a dust) on rose foliage to prevent "black spot." If your hardy phlox or any other perennial shows signs of mildew, give them a good sulphur dusting. Sometimes, particularly with phlox, this is caused by overcrowding. See that air circulates freely between your plants.

Very early Thursday morning our decreasing moon will enter the fixed, earthy and semi-fruitful sign, Taurus. Do things for permanency on this day and Friday, as repairing and painting furniture, machinery, etc. Set fence posts and put up fences, clotheslines, etc. Saturday morning very early it will enter the fixed, airy and barren sign, Gemini.

We shall have a new moon late Sunday night, and early Monday morning our new and increasing moon will enter the movable, watery and exceedingly fruitful sign, Cancer. This is the day to set out the rest of your annuals—petunias, zinnias, marigolds, asters, snapdragons, etc. Have you disbudded your chrysanthemums? Better do this so your plants will bush, rather than grow so spindly.

The hemerocallis or day lily, "Winsome," a pale yellow . . .

Also, disbudding tends to produce larger and superior blooms, which are preferred by the experts rather than a profusion of small blooms.

At the moment we haven't a tomato plant in our kitchen garden, but I do have hopes. Plans were not carried out as I had arranged before taking off for Europe late last March. April and May are two very important months in a garden, and when left neglected, and with May unusually dry and hot, we are very lucky to have anything at all. There's a heap of glorious work out there and some way or other and sooner or later it will get done. After all, "He who dances must pay the piper."

You can't believe how grateful I am for each and every lovely flower that has survived this spring's neglect. The other day I looked out and saw a day lily in bloom, the first of the season!

A pale yellow cup about two inches in diameter and the entire plant not over 24 inches tall. "Winsome" is its name, an origination of Yeld's. Not a new hemerocallis but a very desirable one in a town garden because of its petite size, pleasing fragrance, long-blooming season and best of all, for arranging and decorative purposes, "Winsome" stays open into the evening. Perhaps because the days were cloudy, the first two blooms stayed open two whole days. Our picture shows the bloom holding up beautifully on its second day. I might add that this early morning as I write, the second bloom is still open and this is its third day. But the sun is coming up and we shall soon see what happens. Anyway, "Winsome" is certainly a jewel in our garden. So until another day—

Loyalty Oaths

Grand Junction, Colo.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Answering your editorial, "Firing Into A Crowd," I would like to make a few comments. Why should anyone resent being asked to sign a loyalty oath? This brings to light the ones who refuse, and there is something radically wrong with anyone who is not proud to sign an oath of loyalty to the best country in the world.

I'm proud to be an American and want to shout it from the rooftops. So bring on the loyalty oaths and I'll gladly sign.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Our state legislators are having a battle with themselves over what they should do with LB 362, the ton-mile tax bill. The truth is, it is a battle between the people of the state of Nebraska and the big highway box-cars, commonly called trucks.

Probe Committee Recommends Klaver Censure

Legislature To Consider Resolution On Tuesday

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

The Legislature is expected Tuesday to take up consideration of a resolution of the special investigating committee which recently held hearings on "alleged improper conduct" of members.

The resolution provides that Sen. Sam Klaver, Omaha, be "censured, reprimanded and condemned for improper and unethical conduct."

The reprimand would be on the charge "that he sought profitable employment as attorney and advertisements as a publisher, as compensation for acts to be performed in defeating legislation which he himself proposed and threatened to introduce at the present session of the Legislature."

The report said the committee based its recommendation of censure upon the juke-box bill incident rather than upon the situation developing over the killing by a committee of which he was chairman of a bill to license trailer parks or upon miscellaneous matters concerning Klaver.

'Drew Diagram'

Jerome Witt, president of the Nebraska Automatic Phonograph Operators Association, was quoted by the committee as positively testifying that Klaver offered to represent him as attorney for $2,500 to be paid $1,000 in cash and $1,500 by way of advertising in his weekly Public Ledger.

The committee quoted Witt as saying that Klaver drew small diagrams of the proposed advertising on a paper napkin along with the terms of the proposal. They said Witt testified that the napkin was subsequently lost.

They said Witt testified that he a few minutes later told members of the association that he had "just met the best shakedown artist in the country."

Klaver Denial

Klaver denied Witt's testimony on the witness stand. He said Witt asked him if he could make slot machines legal. But the report continued:

"The committee doubts that Mr. Witt ever supposed that slot machines could be made legal by a legislative act in view of the prior publicity given to the constitutional prohibitions against such apparatus."

The committee report consisted of 12 pages and said it "is not satisfied with the testimony of at least Mr. Cliff Nelson and Dan Katzman." Nelson and Katzman had charge of $2,500 raised by the Nebraska Mobilhomes Association.

"This committee believes that this sum of money was withdrawn for an unlawful purpose, either to be spent or to be held for such a purpose," they reported.

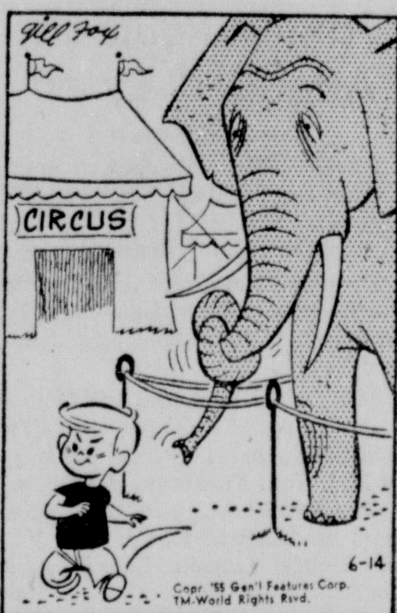

"There is no direct evidence of a promise to pay Sen. Klaver or that he received any money and we do not think suspicious circumstances alone would warrant us in inferring that it was held for his use, particularly when other equally suspicious motives might be inferred."

Members of the committee were: Sens. Robert C. Brower, O. H. Person, William Moulton, Lester H. Anderson and John Aufenkamp.

Meyer Renamed

Gov. Anderson Monday named Judge Earl L. Meyer, Alliance, to another five year term on the State Public Library Commission. Meyer has served on the commission since 1943.

WILBUR

SEVERANCE TAX OK'D

The oil and gas severance tax, placing a two per cent tax on oil and gas produced in Nebraska, was signed into law by Gov. Victor Anderson Monday.

Also approved was the "save the trains" bill, a measure designed to retain the last Chicago and North Western passenger train still operating between Omaha and Chadron. The bill amends the full crew law so that the flagman may be dropped from the train's crew.

Another bill signed by Anderson was the measure revising the state's election laws. It sets May as the date for all primaries, eliminates short-short terms for Nebraska seats in the U.S. Senate, and clarifies the manner of filling for vacancies.

An enabling act permitting a merger of public power districts was approved. It takes effect immediately.

The act is an attempt to help settle the public power law suit now in progress.

Gov. Anderson approved two measures he introduced following the rebellion at the State Penitentiary.

The list of bills signed:

LB 558, Authorizing State Railway Commission making grain warehouse inspection reports available to federal government agencies.

LB 80, changing provisions in election laws in regard to vacancies; changing off-year primary from August to May.

LB 197, providing that surviving joint owners of property held jointly shall be liable for debts and obligations of the deceased joint owner under prescribed conditions.

LB 216, levying a two per cent severance tax on oil and gas produced in Nebraska.

LB 501, allowing public power districts doing business in more than 13 counties to merge.

LB 336, redefining duties for the county board and supervisor when a petition is filed for establishment, vacation or alteration of a public road.

LB 220, providing for disposition of surplus housing project rentals.

LB 276, providing method of taxing powers in appointment for inheritance tax purposes.

LB 349, making it unlawful for unauthorized person to park without consent of the owner or tenant.

LB 407, increasing penalty for failure to stop a box or vehicle transporting explosives before crossing a railroad track.

LB 550, restating penalties for parole violation.

LB 551, providing method of restoring good time earned by prisoners who have committed an infraction of the rule while confined in the State Penitentiary.

LB 552, providing that the Military Department share of the state building fund may be used for equipping, repairing, and remodeling armories.

LB 554, providing that when a passenger and mail train contains not more than two passenger carrying cars, it may operate with a four-man crew under prescribed conditions.

Omaha 'Refund' Measure Passes

A bill carrying with it the possibility of a refund for Omaha taxpayers who "overpaid" last year in the light of the Supreme Court decision in the Fromkin case passed the Legislature Monday.

LB 129, introduced by Sens. Klaver, Tvrdik and Larkin, all of Omaha, provides for a refund or credit when any tax or assessment is determined by a court to be illegal.

In the Fromkin case, the High Court ruled that the Douglas County board had waited beyond the legal deadline to raise assessments.

The tax refund bill was one of nine measures passed Monday. The complete list:

LB 381, Babensky, Ruhnke, Increasing amount the county Board, excepting in Douglas County, may spend in bridges and road improvements without calling for bids. 31-6.

LB 9, Budget Committee, Authorizing payment of salaries of state constitutional officers. (E) 37-0.

LB 115, Lee, Brower, Providing that unpaid future installments for improvements in first-class cities may be declared due when three or more installments are delinquent. 31-8.

LB 385, Cramer, Designating State Board of Education as state Board of Vocational Education. 38-0.

LB 305, Education Committee, Providing another method of determining number of inhabitants of a school district. 37-1.

Fort Randall To Grand Island Power Line Requests Continue

Irrigation Aid Declared Just And Feasible

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb.) said Monday he has brought to the attention of the Department of the Interior that construction of the Fort Randall-Grand Island 230 KV transmission line is further justified because Nebraska will receive no ditch irrigation under the Missouri River Basin development.

In a meeting with Assistant Secretary of Interior, Fred Aandahl, Curtis pointed out that the Missouri Basin development was enacted by the Congress to extend irrigation and to combat drought, crop failures, and floods. Construction of the Fort Randall-Grand Island line will greatly benefit the increasing demand, in Nebraska, for power used in pump irrigation.

'Modest' Request
In his discussions with Assistant Secretary Aandahl, Senator Curtis stated "In view of all these facts an appropriation of funds for the power line requested to support irrigation in Nebraska is just, feasible, and in the public interest. The amount required is modest in the light of the total cost of Missouri River development and of the flood control and navigation benefits going to other localities at no cost to the communities benefited." The House Appropriations Committee declined to include funds for a smaller line from Fort Randall to Neligh, pending a decision as to whether such a line would be adequate or whether it would in a few years have to give way to the 230 KV line.

Ex-Grand Island Cashier Indicted On Embezzlement

OMAHA (AP)—Walter E. Siebert, formerly assistant cashier of the First National Bank in Grand Island, has been indicted by a federal grand jury here on seven counts of embezzlement.

Deputy U.S. Attorney William C. Spire said Monday the indictment accuses Siebert of embezzling monies paid in on loans and falsifying entries on the bank's books to cover it.

He said about $1,500 was involved. The incidents mentioned in the indictment were alleged to have taken place in 1953 and 1954.

Siebert was taken into custody by a U.S. marshal Monday. He posted bond.

Free On Bond
Two men were freed on bond in Omaha after having been indicted by the grand jury on three counts of conspiracy to influence the actions of the Federal Housing Administration.

They are Cecil J. Luxford, former Omaha appliance dealer; and Frank H. Anderson, Omaha heating contractor.

Frank W. Phillippi who was sentenced to two years in the Federal Penitentiary at Terre Haute, Ind., was brought back to Omaha to testify before the grand jury in this case.

He had pleaded guilty to nine counts of making false statements to obtain FHA-insured home improvement loans before he was sentenced.

Farmers Advised To Keep On Watch For Grasshoppers

State Entomologist C. J. Walstrom Monday advised farmers to "keep close watch on the grasshopper situation" in their regions.

He said grasshoppers are appearing in large numbers in many sections of the state, confirming early predictions based on fall egg surveys.

Grasshoppers are easier and less expensive to control if early control measures using some of the newer insecticides are adopted, said Walstrom.

He suggested dieldrin at one to two ounces, heptachlor at two to four ounces, chlordane at one pound, or toxaphene at 1½ pounds.

Lerner Appointed

Agricultural Levees Claimed Unnecessary Due To Big Dams

OMAHA — A director of the Mississippi Valley Assn. believes there should be a re-examination of the decision to build agricultural levees along the Missouri River upstream from Omaha.

Henry McCampbell of Omaha said he feels the levees would be unnecessary because of the Army Engineers' big dams upstream.

The Gavins Point, Fort Randall, Oahe, Garrison and Fort Peck dams have proved so efficient and there are so few tributaries from Gavins Point to Omaha that it is questionable whether levee protection is necessary, McCampbell said.

The plan calls for 386 miles of 8-foot-high levees from Omaha to Sioux City at an estimated cost of 20 million dollars. McCampbell said agricultural levees promise to handicap farmers in bringing river land into cultivation.

U Of N Graduates Told To Anticipate Responsibilities

... Dr. Elliott Is Speaker

The University of Nebraska's 1955 graduating class was told Monday that it must anticipate its responsibilities as alumni.

This challenge was presented to the students by Dr. Edward C. Elliott a University of Nebraska graduate himself 60 years ago.

He told the 860 graduates that their diplomas "are promissory notes to be discharged only through continued personal service, that will enable the university to have, to hold and to enlarge its usefulness to the youth and the people of the state and nation."

Dr. Elliott said that looking in his crystal ball he could see a new operating unit set up in the university—a college of the alumni having the responsibility for the vitality of the institution.

Determination
He told the graduates that their success depends on "determination, industry, insight and a readiness to accept chances."

"Throughout there must be clear recognition that the greatest of all the problems of work, of science, of life itself, is why human beings behave as they do in the ever present realities of human aspirations and partisanships."

Unless the graduates help solve these problems, he said, the world will ask "why and where goes the university?"

Dr. Elliott listed several "barriers" to progress of the university. These included:

Validity of charges that the university costs more than it should, and that it admits too many students illly prepared and of mediocre capacity;

The foresighted detection and recruitment of students having superior intellectual potential ability; The selection and better compensation of teachers of superior scholarship and of personality essential for inspired teaching.

He said these example "demand funds that will frighten those who are 19th century minded instead of possessing a 20th century awareness."

'Full Opportunity'
Dr. Elliott asked the people of the state to give Chancellor Hardin "full opportunity for the exercise of his leadership."

Dr. Hardin presented Dr. Elliott a plaque expressing the university's "sincere appreciation of his devotion to the cause of higher learning and in recognition of his achievement in its service."

Dr. George E. Condra, dean emeritus of the University's Conservation and Survey Division, was given the Nebraska Builder Award for outstanding contributions to the welfare of the state and the university.

Receiving honorary degrees were:

Dr. Elmer C. Bratt, professor of economics at Lehigh University, doctor of laws.

Dr. Hollis L. Caswell, president of Columbia University Teachers College, doctor of laws.

Arthur W. Farrall, professor and chairman of Michigan State College department of agricultural engineering, doctor of engineering.

Dr. Homer L. Shantz, former president of the University of Arizona and now collaborator with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, doctor of laws.

Leslie L. Zook of North Platte, retired superintendent of North Platte Experiment Station, doctor of science.

Distinguished Service Awards, conferred jointly by the University Alumni Association and Board of Regents, were presented to:

Harold (Tim) Corey of Austin, Minn.; Robert W. Devos of Lincoln; Mrs. Roscoe Hill of Lincoln; Otto Liebers of Lincoln; and Ralph E. Weaverling of Kansas City, Mo.

Dr. Hardin told the graduates that they are indebted to the people of Nebraska for their investment. He said they could return this principal sum many times over. At the conclusion of the graduation ceremonies, Dr. Hardin paid tribute to the parents, wives, husbands and grandparents of the graduates saying that they share in commencement and that they should always consider themselves part of the university.

resenting the senior class, introduced the speaker and received her diploma from Dr. Hardin.

Dr. James Chubb, of Grand Island Trinity Methodist Church, was chaplain and music was provided by the University Band.

Franklin Road Group To See Gov. Anderson

A Franklin County highway delegation will meet with Gov. Anderson Tuesday to ask for improvements on State Highway 4 south of Blue Hill.

Sen. William McHenry, Nelson, said the group wants the portion of the road between Highways 281 and 49 upgraded from gravel to black top. The stretch of highway is not included in the highway department's 1955-57 proposed construction schedule.

The group includes residents of Campbell and Bladen as well as several farmers, McHenry said.

500 Being Tempted

CHICAGO (INS) — The Rev. Dr. John T. S. Mao, chancellor of the Catholic archdiocese in Nan-king, China, said some 500 Chinese students in Chicago are being tempted by Communist offers to return to their homeland. Dr. Mao told Chicago's mayor, Richard J. Daley, that Red agents are "trying very hard to lure the students" with high wages and top jobs because of their American taught skills and learning.

Van Pelt In Picture

The name of District Judge John L. Polk was erroneously listed in a cutline in the Saturday Star instead of Attorney Robert Van Pelt. The photograph showed a group honored by the District Judges Association. Van Pelt is chairman of the Nebraska Bar Association judiciary committee.

Bon Voyage, Happy Landings—And A Merry Holiday

Some go by air, some by sea, but all on the opposite shore will be — before too many days have elapsed—Eight of the nine attractive young women pictured in the panel, have diplomas upon which the ink scarcely is dry — They were graduated on Monday from the University of Nebraska — One of them will not return to the States for at least two years—The ninth member of the group Miss Sue Shepherd, has just completed her freshman year at Nebraska and will return to the campus in September.

At the upper left we find Miss Bridget Watson and Miss Sue Muehlaupt (both Thetas at Nebraska) discussing the problem of packing — It might be more simple for Miss Watson, since she will be in her native France for an indefinite stay, and therefore it is just a question of how many clothes can be packed in how much room—Miss Muehlaupt will be away only for the summer months and her problem is more how little luggage rather than how much.

Miss Watson stops in London for a visit with her godmother, Lady Minton, before going on to Paris where she will be the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Pierre Wargny. Miss Muehlaupt will spend the summer touring Europe. Both were graduated from Nebraska on Monday.

Second from the left is Mrs. Richard Huebner, the former Marilyn Tyson, whose happy smile indicates that she has received her "port call" and soon will be joining Lt. Huebner in England where he will be stationed for the next two years—Mrs. Huebner, whose marriage took place in January is a Kappa Kappa Gamma at Nebraska from where she received her degree on Monday. Her "port of call" incidentally—means plane reservations.

Glenna Berry, a graduate of the University of Nebraska as of Monday — and a Pi Beta Phi, thinks it might be well to practice up on her French, and the best way to do that, Miss Berry believes, is do her French speaking to a mirror — That way she can be sure she is forming her words in the correct manner — Miss Berry's home town is Onawa, Ia., and she has been chosen

NEWS OF THE TOWN

Two sweet girl graduates who aren't shedding any tears over leaving the Nebraska campus — especially when there is a trip to Europe just ahead — are Miss Muriel Pickett of Schuyler, Pi Beta Phi, and Miss Barbara Jones of Hastings Alpha Phi. Miss Pickett, assisted by Miss

A LOT of water has gone under the bridge since the first day of June — people who are gone are home again — people who were home have gone again—there have been conventions—there have been parties and, need we say it? there have been weddings.

Cunningham is to be honored. After the convention, which will be held from June 20, to June 24, inclusive, the Cunninghams will return home by way of Madison, Wis., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Doane, formerly of Lincoln.

Sue Shepherd, Delta Gamma at Nebraska, where she will be a sophomore next year, simply is entranced with all of the travel folders from all of the countries she plans to visit during her two months stay abroad.

Monday Evening Bride

OFF to Washington, D. C. this morning went Col. and Mrs. Harry Cunningham who will visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cunningham before the career diplomat and his wife leave for Helsinki, Finland, where Mr. Cunningham will be Counselor of the Embassy.

From Washington Col. and Mrs. Cunningham will go to Minneapolis for a convention of the American Institute of Architects at which, so we hear, Col.

But no sooner will the Cunninghams arrive in Lincoln than will be off again — to Ithaca, N.Y., where Col. Cunningham will view the new murals for the capitol — We were assured there are no more square bulls.

IN TOWN (since yesterday) for a very brief visit are Dr. and Mrs. H. Mark Young of Los Angeles, Dr. and Mrs. Young stopped off in Lincoln en route home from Atlantic City, where Dr. Young attended the recent medical meetings, and are the house guests of Mrs. Young's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Morgan, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Weaver. Completing the family group will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gatz (Josephine Weaver) and their three sons of Falls City.

Mrs. Young is the former Ruth Weaver.

Honor Bridal Couple

Lighted candles and arrangements of gladioli appointed the chancel of the St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church for the wedding on Monday evening, June 13, of Miss Ardis Ruth Imig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Imig, to Walter J. Finke Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Finke of Wichita, Kan. The Rev. Arthur G. Crisp read the lines of the 7:30 o'clock service, and Allen Schmid sang preceding the ceremony accompanied by Mrs. Henry Sengstake, organist, who also played the wedding music.

The two attendants, Miss Eileen Imig who, as her sister's maid of honor, appeared in pastel green; and Mrs. Ronald Mangel in yellow, the bridesmaid, wore identically styled frocks of crystalettes over taffeta, and carried bouquets of carnations that reflected the tones of their frocks.

Robert Mortvedt of Dell Rapids, S.D., served Mr. Finke as best man, and the ushers

Marriage Announced

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Editha L. Shankland of Winnebago, formerly of Lincoln, and John H. Miller of Akron, O., on Saturday afternoon, June 4. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson at West Point, and the 4 o'clock service was solemnized by the Rev. G. C. Aalberts, pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church of Winnebago.

Mrs. Delno Anderson of North Bend was the matron of honor and her sister's only attendant, and Mr. Anderson served Mr. Miller as best man. Miss Helena Baegl of Lincoln was the vocal soloist.

Following the ceremony, a reception for members of the family and a small group of friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home at 3512 Orchard Drive, Stow, O.

The bride is a graduate of the Akron General Hospital School of Nursing and has been a member of the nursing staff at the Winnebago Indian Hospital for the last eight years.

Included among those attending the wedding were Miss Jeane Shankland, sister of the bride, Miss Augusta Baegl and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Nichols, all of Lincoln.

Has Evening Service

For the marriage of Miss Muriel Louise Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Joy, and Robert J. Eisenach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Eisenach of Culbertson, on Monday, June 13, the chancel of the First Methodist Church was lighted by white candles in floor candelabra, and appointed with arrangements of white and coral gladioli. The 8 o'clock evening ceremony was solemnized by Dr. Carl M. Davidson, and Mrs. Marjorie Smith, organist, played the wedding music. Mrs. Smith also accompanied Mrs. Oscar Bennett, violinist, and Mrs. Ben Akert, vocalist.

Mrs. Daryl G. Long of Dix, as the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Guthrie of Exeter, and Mrs. Neil Carlson of Hoisington, Kan., wore alike frocks of coral-toned crystalettes, bandeaus of pearl-dotted crystalettes and carried crescents of white carnations. Wearing aqua

When Mr. and Mrs. Wilber O. Johnson entertained at a reception between the hours of 7:30 o'clock and 10 o'clock on Sunday evening it was to honor their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George William Buchenau, whose marriage took place in La Cruces, N. M., on June 3.

NYQUIST-HERMAN

FRANKS-SCHUERMAN

Are Married At Candlelight Ceremonies

On Sunday evening, June 12, Miss Lovis Celeste Nyquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nyquist of Craig, became the bride of Richard Carson Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Herman of San Diego, Calif., at a 7 o'clock ceremony at the Elm Lutheran Church in Hooper. The Rev. E. T. Chivall solemnized the service before a background of white gladioli and tall candles burning in seven branch candelabra. Mrs. Alvis Peterson who played the wedding music also accompanied Stanley Nyquist of Omaha, the vocal soloist.

Identically styled waltz-length frocks of tulle over matching taffeta were worn by the attendants including Miss Marilee Nyquist, sister of the bride, as the maid of honor, who wore the aqua tone; Mrs. Stanley Nyquist of Omaha, and Mrs. Carroll Nyquist of Craig, bridesmaids, who wore the orchid tone. The costumes were completed with bandeaus of ruffled tulle and each carried crescent bouquets of yellow carnations. The flowergirls were Miss Sandra Norberg of Craig, and Miss Jeri Sue Nyquist of Omaha, and lighting the candles were Arlan Johnson and Miss Norene Norberg of Craig.

Carroll Nyquist served as best man and the ushers were Donald Gray of Seward and Larry Nyquist of Craig.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted long-sleeved bodice was fashioned with graduated natural scallops which formed the portrait neckline, and the bouffant chapel-skirt featured a front insert of pleated tulle. A tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a crescent of white gladioli and stephanotis.

Mrs. Herman is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and at present is a dietitian at the Lincoln General Hospital.

Gladioli in pastel spring shades appointed the candlelighted chancel of the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, June 12, for the marriage of Miss Mary Cleo Franks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Franks, and Lt. Charles Willet Schuerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Schuerman of Clatonia. The 4 o'clock service was read by Dr. C. Vin White in the presence of 350 guests, and Miss Grace Finch, organist, played the wedding music. Miss Finch also accompanied Miss Beverly George, the vocal soloist.

Wearing identical costumes of crystalet in frosted tones of yellow, pink and green were Mrs. Leta Maree Franks of Beaumont, Tex., the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Carol Dunker, Dodge; Miss Janice Baker, Ericson; Miss Betty Hrabik, Louisville; and Miss Bonnie Lindau, Wahoo. They carried sprays of white daisies to accent their full-skirted, ballerina frocks. Lighting the candles were Miss Kay Skinner and Miss Joyce Benge.

Virgil Schuerman of Clatonia served as best man, and the ushers were Jack Barkey, Cortland; Dean Ekberg, Omaha; Dale Van Vleck, Clearwater; and Church Watson, Pierce.

White French tulle embroidered in a floral motif fashioned the bride's gown. A standing frill of the tulle framed the portrait neckline of the snug, long-sleeved bodice, and inserts of minutely-pleated tulle added to the width of the full skirt, which ended in a whisper train. Petal points of tulle and pearls formed the coronet which held her illusion veil, and she carried a cascade of white orchids.

Lt. and Mrs. Schuerman, both graduates of the University of Nebraska where the bridegroom is a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma, will reside at Manhattan, Kan.

Demo Chief Turns Down Shivers Offer To Discuss Texas Tiff

Paul Butler Tells Governor He'll Be Too Busy

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — National Democratic Chairman Paul Butler Monday turned down an offer by Gov. Allan Shivers to talk over Texas Democratic differences.

Too busy, Butler told Shivers. "Regrettable for the future of the Democratic party," Shivers told newsmen in announcing Butler's answer.

Shivers accused the Texas Democratic Advisory Council, sponsoring Butler's trip through Texas, of trying to keep the high party official from hearing "both sides" of the state Democratic fuss.

Earlier, a party source had revealed that Shivers wired Butler Saturday seeking a meeting during the week-long Texas tour beginning Tuesday.

Bid Fails

Shivers said he had invited Butler to lunch in Austin in return for a courtesy Butler had extended him on a trip to Washington.

"I received his reply today his schedule would not permit it," Shivers said.

The rejected invitation apparently blew sky high the latest bid to get feuding factions of the party in Texas back on an "old buddy" basis.

The governor told reporters he had noted that invitations sent out to Butler luncheons and dinners said they were extended by House Speaker Sam Rayburn and the Democratic Advisory Council.

"Since they were worded like that and because no meeting was planned in Austin, I can only assume they were fearful Mr. Butler might be able to hear both sides of questions," he said.

Majority

The governor said one question Butler should answer while he is in Texas is whether the group with a majority in the Texas convention next May will be seated at the national convention, or if the "bestowed" group will be seated whether it has a majority or not.

"I think Mr. Butler can settle that in a hurry," Shivers said.

Conservative and liberal factions of the Texas Democratic party have been feuding for years over policy.

Butler's tour was a bid to bring them together again, but it only resulted in a new hassle.

The conservatives, headed by Shivers, boycotted the pep rally swing around the state after they became convinced the national party intended to let the Democratic Advisory Council, composed of liberal Texas Democrats, handle all of the tour's details.

Since the tour plans were completed, Shivers, National Committeewoman Hilda Weinert and state Chairman George Sandlin have publicly said they would not be able to attend any of the functions planned for Butler.

opens the way to new beauty for women with dry skin... oily skin... disturbed skin

WHY? Your skin is dry. You use rich creams faithfully, yet there's no relief from flakiness. Why?

WHY? Your skin is oily. You switch from one treatment preparation to another, yet blackheads and blemishes still persist. Why?

BECAUSE! The answer is the same in either case, as Max Factor scientists have now proved. There's a chemical barrier in the skin which keeps creams and lotions "on the outside looking in"—as though they were smoothed on glass! This barrier develops when skin lacks correct pH* balance and is either too acid or too alkaline.

WHAT? But now Max Factor has perfected the way to bring about normal acidity-alkaline balance characteristic of young skin... puts in your hands the SECRET KEY—a remarkable liquid which prepares your skin for treatment by breaking through the stubborn chemical barrier. The SECRET KEY now actually opens the way for treatment creams and lotions to do their beautifying work!

Having discovered the SECRET KEY, Max Factor has formulated exclusive corrective creams and lotions to follow right behind... complete beauty treatment groups for Dry Skin, for Oily Skin, for Disturbed Skin, for Normal Skin.

Bucs' Long Closing In On NL Batting Leaders

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Pittsburgh's first baseman, Dale Long, who has had a brief, but turbulent major league career, has closed in on the leaders in the National League batting race.

Logart Gains Divided Nod

NEW YORK (AP)—Isaac Logart of Cuba bled-punched his way to a split 10-round decision over Ludwig Lightburn of British Honduras at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night. The victory was Logart's second over Lightburn in five weeks. Logart weighed 144, Lightburn 138½.

Logart started like a whirling dervish but finished like a snail with the result that the decision was far from popular with the crowd of 1,700. The spectators jeered for almost two minutes.

Referee Barney Felix gave it to Logart 5-4 with one round even. Judge Leo Birnbaum called it even in rounds and 5-4 for Logart on points—the system used in New York State to break deadlocks. Judge Artie Aidaia had it 5-4-1 for Lightburn. The Associated Press card also had Lightburn the winner 5-4-1.

There couldn't have been much argument if this had been called a draw. Logart, a stablemate of Kid Gavilan, clearly had the advantage at the start and for the first two rounds it appeared that Lightburn might not even last the distance.

Two Teams Tie In Pro-Am Go

Two foursomes with best ball net scores of 60 tied for team honors at a pro-amateur golf event at the Lincoln Country Club course Monday.

George Getchell, pro at the Omaha country club, led one of the teams, composed of John Schumacher, Nebraska City, Bob Lau, Lincoln, and Dr. George Smaha, Grand Island.

The other team was Leon Ponder, Omaha driving range pro, Jack Kennitz and John Clione, both of Omaha, and Sam Spomer, Lincoln.

The two teams racked up identical 30-30-60 scores over the par 3636-72 course.

Two more teams tied at 61. Louis Kill, pro at Council Bluffs Dodge Park, led a foursome made of Sam Alexander, Glenn Emmitt and Al Kill which carded a 29-32-61. The other foursome, Dick Knight, Omaha driving range pro, Ed Smith and Whitie Reed, both of Lincoln, and Ken Vaughn of the Lincoln Air Force Base, racked up a 30-31-61.

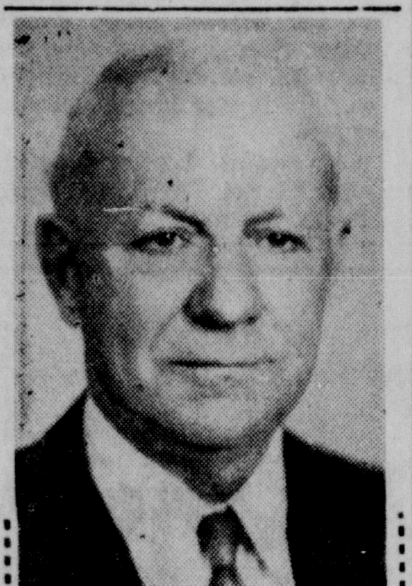

Dick Knight was low pro with a 67, while Whitie Reed and Jim Haney of Omaha led the amateurs with 71's.

Buff Star Rejects Tribe Bonus, Signs

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians said here they had signed Carroll Hardy, a former University of Colorado athlete, to a contract with their farm team at Reading, Pa.

The tribe said the 22-year-old turned down a bonus contract "in order to start playing professional baseball regularly."

Hardy, an outfielder in baseball, was the third draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League. He was the first man at Colorado to earn 10 varsity letters.

Traps On The Green?

Nicky Onofrio ponders the problem of how to play this shot on the third green at Pioneers—he's in one of the several hoof prints left on the green by two horses which galloped across the course Sunday, causing extensive

Snead 'Man To Beat'—Ed Furgol

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lame-armed Ed Furgol flew in Monday to prepare for defense of his National Open golf championship and unloaded three observations.

He said:
1. Sam Snead is the player to beat for the title because "He's got the strength to get out of the rough."

2. The Olympic Lake Course, site of the tournament starting Thursday, is at least 20 per cent easier than Baltusrol where he won last year and the winner should break 280. Only one National Open has been won by a score lower than that figure—Ben Hogan's record 276 at Riviera in 1949.

3. Don't write Furgol's golfing obituary yet.

Don't Forget Furgol
"I've been reading old Ed's obituary every day but don't count me out before next Saturday," the lean son of a Polish immigrant said. "My right arm still troubles me some but I don't have any complaints about the way I'm playing."

"Besides, the weather is going to be a big factor, with all this rain and fog here. Remember I won at Baltusrol on a course drenched by almost three days of rain. It was bad weather at Washington over the weekend."

Furgol Sunday staged a comeback to win the top prize in the International tournament at Washington, D.C.

"This is just another 18-hole course and it's not 80 per cent of Baltusrol," added the champion, who shot a two-over-par 72 at Olympic on National Golf Day.

"Snead Hard to Whip"
The weather conditions that day, however, were perfect.

"The rough is tough, sure, but this is a course that can be shot in 65. I think Snead is going to be hard to whip. He's so powerful he can whale out of the rough without penalizing himself too much."

Sam Spomer Wins York Open Title

Dick Harr Pitches, Bats College View To Win As City League Play Begins

A classy pitching job by Dick Harr of College View stood out in a rash of free-hitting games Monday as City League baseball play opened.

Harr pitched two-hit ball against the Randolph A team and highlighted his team's 8-4 win with a triple in the sixth inning, when College View scored five times to come from behind.

A one-hitter and one short no-hitter went into the books in B games. Mick McGuire of Randolph stopped College View with one hit in five innings. Randolph B won when first baseman Carleton Flynn tripled with the bases loaded in the fourth inning.

The no-hitter was a three-inning affair tossed by Becker of Antelope against Havelock B. Antelope won 12-0 to sweep the double-header.

Bob Graham, Dick Schmoker and Denny Grieser got key hits in a big fourth inning as Antelope A beat Havelock, 9-6.

Why Ancient Age can say:

"If you can find a better bourbon ... buy it!"

For many, many years we've believed so devoutly in straight Kentucky bourbon that we've distilled nothing but!

We comb sun-dappled fields for the choicest ripened grains. We use bright, clear Kentucky spring water. We wait patiently through the years while Ancient Age reaches rich maturity. We seal and bottle the incomparable result only at the distillery where it is born (essential for quality and uniformity). And whiskey experts have always agreed with us that there is no better bourbon, and that Ancient Age is a bargain at any price. Now there is still another reason for Ancient Age's popularity. More than six years ago, we laid away extra stocks of Ancient Age. So today we actually lower the price of this truly matchless bourbon. Today this millionaire's whiskey can be enjoyed by everyone.

Taste Ancient Age and you'll see why we can say: "If you can find a better bourbon... buy it!" Reason? There is no better bourbon. And, at its new low price, this is the greatest value in history.

Air Base Hospital Reinstated

Lincoln and Air Base officials Monday hailed the House Armed Services Committee action dropping any plans to transfer part or all of the Lincoln Veterans Hospital to the Air Force.

The committee, Rep. Phil Weaver of Nebraska told The Star, reinstated a $2.6 million appropriation for a 100-bed hospital at the base.

The proposals to use all or part of the Lincoln Veterans Hospital when the committee cut this same sum from the proposed Air Force appropriation.

Col. Claude E. Putnam, commander of the 818th Air Division, called the action "by far the most sensible solution as we see it. We're very pleased."

Rep. Weaver said the Air Force wanted to take over control of the VA hospital and allocate a certain number of beds for veterans. Weaver said he asked the committee to let the VA maintain control and allocate beds to the Air Force.

Col. Putnam had stated earlier that, even with the VA beds, the base would have to maintain certain special medical facilities on the base itself.

John E. Curtiss, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Veterans Hospital and Veterans Affairs Committee, said that "Washing-ton apparently felt that the use of part of Lincoln Veterans Hospital by the Air Force is unworkable."

The Air Force plan to take over the entire hospital was stalled last week when the chairman of the House committee, Rep. Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) sided with the six-member Nebraska delegation in opposing the transfer.

The money for the hospital at the base was part of an estimated $6,595,000 in public works projects approved by the committee for the Lincoln base.

Vote Advised On Banner Co. School Issue

A plan to set up a county-wide school district in Banner County has been recommended to be put to a vote of the county residents. The State School Redistricting Committee made the recommendation.

The Banner County Reorganization Committee earlier advanced the proposal to organize the schools into a Class III county unit school district.

If the plan is adopted, most of the existing school buildings will continue in use temporarily.

The State Committee for the Reorganization of School Districts reviewed 23 plans, Chairman Arabelle P. Hanna said.

The committee disapproved a Cedar County plan to attach District 100 to District 32 and District 104 to 24d. The committee recommended that the districts work toward a more comprehensive plan, continuing to contract for another year.

Reorganization plans approved are:

Cass County: To attach District 14 to 56 (Murray elementary).

Lancaster: To merge Districts 10, 135 and 146 in and around Walton for elementary and high school purposes.

Chase, Hayes, Perkins: To divide District 26 in Chase and Hayes counties and attach to Grant and Elsie districts in Perkins.

Cass: To attach District 43 to C-7, subject to local agreement on tuition payment.

Thayer: To attach District 86 to 60 (Decker).

Cedar: To attach District 37 to 169 (Marston City).

Scotts Bluff: To attach District 23 to 5.

Ross: To attach District 55 to 47.

Deuel: To attach one-half section of land in District 10 to Chapel Elementary District 7.

Harrison: To attach District 76 to 18.

Jefferson: To merge Districts 20, 41, and 48.

Havens: To attach District 10 to 61 (Hamel).

Havens: To attach portion of District 51 and District 23 and District 27.

Saunders: To dissolve District 2 and attach to Districts 23 and 27.

Cedar, Dixon: To merge Ober and Maxwell High Districts for purpose of uniting elementary and high school pupils and form a new district.

Adams: To attach Districts 9 and 32 to 53.

Red Willow: To attach District 54 to 8.

Lincoln, Frontier: To attach Districts 23 and 35, Lincoln County, to District 46 (Maywood in Frontier).

Rail Pay Based On Length Of Train Is Set

A compromise settlement, based on an entirely new concept of computing railroad workers' wages, will go into effect Thursday.

The new settlement, reached May 26 in Chicago by a national mediation board, sets the basis of pay by the length of the train instead of a basic day scale.

The settlement is a compromise result between national railroad carriers and the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen. The Conductors and Brakemen originally asked for a $1.32 pay hike.

The union asked the increase to equalize the pay differential existing between engine men and train men, F. H. Beckley, Monday, said. Beckley is chairman of the CB&Q Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen.

'Experiment'

"It is an entirely new method of computing wages and in fact is more of an experiment to see if this will bring about the desired results to straighten out the inequities between engine men and trainmen," he said.

"Generally speaking," he said, "it will, on most roads bring about adjustments."

The areas where small trains are run will not benefit greatly, he added. And Burlington trains run smaller than average in order to provide faster service and meet the competition, he added.

80-Car Average

The average train length in the country, he said, was about 80 cars. The same holds for this area.

The new agreement allows the following adjustments:

Less than 81 cars ..... $ .20
81 to 105 cars ..... $ .20
106 to 125 cars ..... .95
126 to 145 cars ..... 1.20
146 to 165 cars ..... 1.30

Twenty cents is added for each additional block of 20 cars or portion thereof, the agreement read.

Also effective Thursday, an adjustment of 20 cents will be made by adding that amount to the daily pay rates of conductors and trainmen in passenger service. Yard crews are not affected by the agreement.

Covered by the agreement are all freight and passenger trainmen which includes conductors and brakemen.
